

During the course of Saturday each of us shared what the Rule meant for us personally. This proved to be an ideal way for us to share personal insights into the life we share.

We welcome Susan Coliero as a Novice in the Community. She took Novice Vows at the Eucharist held in St Albans Gladstone on Sunday 3rd September.

At this same service we recognized Thích Thông Pháp as a Friend.

The Eucharist was the highlight of the Retreat held in the days prior to the Renewal and Receipt of Vows.

We gathered at NABAS HOUSE on Friday evening for Evening Prayer followed by a shared meal. Those who were able watched a DVD Peace is Every Step -The Life and Work of Thich Nhat Hanh (A Vietnamese Buddhist).

Informal sharing happened throughout the weekend.

Fr Simon welcoming Thay as a Friend of CSBC

Sunday commenced with a period of meditation followed by a Taize meditation which set us up for the main event: The Eucharist and Vows.

Spot the difference!

And then to the...

This is the second year we have retreated at NABAS. While there is insufficient accommodation for all to stay in the House (Bishops House and the Caravan Park provided for those not in the House) the ability for us to spend time in close proximity is a great blessing.

The Temanekali Outreach

Over the past two years CSBC has been supporting The Temanekali Christian Center in Uganda.

Pastor Paul Kivirii met with some Community Members in August 2015 and shared with us the work of the Centre.

“The Temanekali Christian Center involves education outreach to minority tribe of so called Balaalo. The center has 412 children of which 126 are accommodated here at school.

We teach children to gain that skill of Agriculture One day in a week is spared to activate farming skill The aims are to promote the self sustainability in the children And create an environment of better nutritional possibility
